DECISION AWARDING DAMAGES¹

Dorsey, Chief Special Master:

On August 22, 2017, petitioners filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioners allege that E.B. suffered “injuries, including intussusception, resulting from the adverse effects of a rotavirus vaccination received on June 2, 2017.” Petition at 1. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On January 12, 2018, a ruling on entitlement was issued, finding petitioners entitled to compensation for E.B.’s intussusception. (ECF No. 15). On May 1, 2018, respondent filed a proffer on award of compensation (“Proffer”) indicating petitioners should be awarded $53,299.31, representing $50,000.00 for past and projected pain and suffering (with projected amounts reduced to net present value) and $3,299.31 for past unreimburseable expenses. (ECF No. 26). In the Proffer, respondent represented that petitioners agree with the proffered award. Id. at 2. Based on the record as a whole, the undersigned finds that petitioners are entitled to an award as stated in the Proffer.

Pursuant to the terms stated in the attached Proffer, the undersigned awards petitioners a total of $53,299.31 as follows:

- 1. A lump sum payment of $50,000.00 for past and projected pain and suffering in the form of a check payable to petitioners, Judy Barton and Jones Barton, as guardians/conservators for E.B., for the benefit of E.B.; and
- 2. A lump sum payment of $3,299.31 for past unreimburseable expenses in the form of a check payable to petitioners, Judy Barton and Jones Barton.

This total amount of $53,299.31 represents compensation for all damages that would be available under § 15(a).

The clerk of the court is directed to enter judgment in accordance with this decision.³

IT IS SO ORDERED.

³ Pursuant to Vaccine Rule 11(a), entry of judgment can be expedited by the parties' joint filing of notice renouncing the right to seek review.

RESPONDENT'S PROFFER ON AWARD OF COMPENSATION

Respondent proffers that E.B. should be awarded $50,000.00 for actual and projected pain and suffering. This amount reflects that the award for projected pain and suffering has been reduced to net present value.¹ See 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(a)(4). Petitioners agree.

B. Past Unreimbursable Expenses

Evidence supplied by petitioners documents their expenditure of past unreimbursable expenses related to E.B.'s vaccine-related injury. Respondent proffers that petitioners should be awarded past unreimbursable expenses in the amount of $3,299.31. Petitioners agree.

II. Form of the Award

The parties recommend that compensation provided to E.B. should be made through lump sum payments as described below and request that the Chief Special Master's decision and the Court's judgment award the following:

A. A lump sum payment of $50,000.00, representing compensation for pain and suffering, in the form of a check payable to petitioners as guardians/conservators of E.B., for the benefit of E.B. No payments shall be made until petitioners provide respondent with documentation establishing that they have been appointed as guardians/conservators of E.B.'s estate. If petitioners are not authorized by a court of competent jurisdiction to serve as guardians/conservators of the estate of E.B., any such payment shall be made to the party or parties appointed by a court of competent jurisdiction to serve as guardian/conservator of the estate of E.B. upon submission of written documentation of such appointment to the Secretary.

B. A lump sum payment of $3,299.31, representing compensation for past unreimbursable expenses made payable to Judy Barton and Jones Barton, petitioners.

III. Summary of Recommended Payments Following Judgment

- | | | |
|----|--|--------------------|
| A. | Lump sum paid to petitioners as guardians/conservators of E.B.'s estate: | $50,000.00 |
| B. | Lump sum paid to petitioners: | $3,299.31 |
